RE: Public Records Request

Roger P. Boudreau

Dear [REDACTED]

Michael R. Boyce

Mark A. Carruolo

We write in response to your August 24, 2015 request for information pursuant to the Rhode Island Access to Public Records Act (APRA). Your specific request is noted below along with our corresponding response.

Michael DiBiase

John P. Maguire

I am looking to obtain a copy of the RI State Police pension for an employee retiring in 2011. Can this be found online? More specifically, I am looking for information regarding circumstances in the event of divorce as well as death benefits/beneficiaries.

John J. Meehan

Marianne F. Monte

Thomas A. Mullaney

Claire M. Newell

With regard to your request for a copy of the RI State Police pension for an employee retiring in 2011, it is unclear the document or documents you are specifically seeking, therefore kindly clarify your request. Enclosed please find a document responsive to your request for information regarding circumstances in the event of a divorce as well as death benefits/beneficiaries.

Jean Rondeau

Frank J. Karpinski
Executive Director

If you contend you have been denied access to public records, pursuant to RIGL §38-2-8, you may appeal this decision to Frank J. Karpinski, Executive Director of the Employees' Retirement System of Rhode Island, 50 Service Avenue, 2nd Floor, Warwick, RI 02886. You may also file a complaint with the Department of the Attorney General, 150 South Main Street, Providence, RI 02903 or the Rhode Island Superior Court of the county where the records are maintained.

Additional information regarding the Access to Public Records Act may be found at <http://www.riag.ri.gov/civil/opengovernment>.

Thank you for your interest in keeping government open and accountable to the public.

Sincerely,

Gayle C. Mambro-Martin, Esq.
Public Records Officer
