RE: Public Records Request

Daniel L. Beardstey

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Frank R. Benell, Jr.

Roger P. Boudreau

We write in response to your January 13, 2015 request for information pursuant to the Rhode Island Access to Public Records Act (APRA). Your specific request is noted below along with our corresponding response.

Michael R. Boyce

Mark A. Carruolo

Michael DiBiase

Can you please send me the latest pension file, same as we've received from you for the past several years?

John P. Maguire

We were looking at the data we received in 2011 and noticed that it included a city and state for each of the members. I presume this is their residence. Is that data still available? We'd like to include it in this year's file.

John J. Meehan

Thomas A. Mullaney

Claire M. Newell

Enclosed please find an excel spreadsheet responsive to your request. If you contend you have been denied access to public records, pursuant to RIGL §38-2-8, you may appeal this decision to Frank J. Karpinski, Executive Director of the Employees' Retirement System of Rhode Island, 50 Service Avenue, 2nd Floor, Warwick, RI 02886. You may also file a complaint with the Department of the Attorney General, 150 South Main Street, Providence, RI 02903 or the Rhode Island Superior Court of the county where the records are maintained.

Louis M. Prata

Jean Rondeau

Frank J. Karpinski
Executive Director

Additional information regarding the Access to Public Records Act may be found at <http://www.riag.ri.gov/civil/opengovernment>.

Thank you for your interest in keeping government open and accountable to the public.

Sincerely,

Gayle C. Mambro-Martin, Esq.
Public Records Officer
