This modification implements the provisions of section 218 of the Social Security Act, as amended, to give a "second chance" for coverage under Modification No. 29 to State employees who are members of the Employees' Retirement System of the State of Rhode Island. The modification also exercises the State's choice to treat "optionals" as members in accordance with the provisions of section 218.

These changes were authorized by Chapter 62 of Rhode Island Public Laws of 1959, which was transmitted from the regional office to the central office on August 27, 1959.
