RE: Public Records Request

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]:

We write in response to your February 12, 2015 request for information pursuant to the Rhode Island Access to Public Records Act (APRA). Your specific request is noted below along with our corresponding response.

We request a list of all stale dated checks in the amount of $500 or Greater currently held by the Rhode Island Treasurer's Office. Please provide the name of payee, check amount, check number, check date, and last known address if available.

Once annually, following the close of the fiscal year, Treasury issues a spreadsheet that details payees of outstanding checks for the last calendar year. On November 2, 2014 and December 17, 2014 you submitted similar requests for lists of stale dated checks. In response to your previous requests we provided you with the spreadsheet that was generated in July 2014 for the last calendar year. Treasury has no additional document responsive to your request, nor has the list previously provided been modified or updated since its creation in July 2014. An updated list will likely be available July 2015.

If you contend you have been denied access to public records, pursuant to Rhode Island General Laws §38-2-8, you may appeal this decision to Jeffrey M. Padwa, General Counsel for the Rhode Island General Treasurer's Office, 50 Service Avenue, 2nd Floor, Warwick, RI 02886. You may also file a complaint with the Department of the Attorney General, 150 South Main Street, Providence, RI 02903 or the Rhode Island Superior Court of the county where the records are maintained.
