RE: Public Records Request No. 8

Roger P. Boudreau

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Michael R. Boyce

Mark A. Carruolo

We write in response to your December 2, 2015 request for information pursuant to the Rhode Island Access to Public Records Act (APRA). Your specific request is noted below along with our corresponding response.

Michael DiBiase

John P. Maguire

*State Pension Contribution:
Governor Sunderlund Credit Union Crisis,*

John J. Meehan

In one of the years subsequent to the closing of the failed credit unions: did the State of Rhode Island fail to make its full annual contribution to the State Retirement System? Yes/No

Marianne F. Monte

Thomas A. Mullaney

Claire M. Newell

Louis M. Prata

If yes, in which year or years?

Jean Rondeau

IF yes what was the amount the state did not contribute?

Frank J. Karpinski
Executive Director

The purpose of the Access to Public Records Act is to provide the public with access to public documents maintained by governmental agencies. It does not require agencies to respond to questions unless those questions can be answered by providing responsive documents. Therefore, to fully comply with the APRA statute, and based on our understanding of your request, enclosed please find a document responsive to your request.

If you contend you have been denied access to public records, pursuant to RIGL §38-2-8, you may appeal this decision to Frank J. Karpinski, Executive Director of the Employees' Retirement System of Rhode Island, 50 Service Avenue, 2nd Floor, Warwick, RI 02886. You may also file a complaint with the Department of the Attorney General, 150 South Main Street, Providence, RI 02903 or the Rhode Island Superior Court of the county where the records are maintained.

Additional information regarding the Access to Public Records Act may be found at <http://www.riag.ri.gov/civil/opengovernment>.

Thank you for your interest in keeping government open and accountable to the public.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'G. Mambro-Martin', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Gayle C. Mambro-Martin, Esq.
Public Records Officer
