RE: Public Records Request No. 4

Roger P. Boudreau

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Michael R. Boyce

Mark A. Caruolo

We write in response to your December 2, 2015 request for information pursuant to the Rhode Island Access to Public Records Act (APRA). Your specific request is noted below along with our corresponding response.

Michael DiBiase

John P. Maguire

What Rhode Island State Department or Branch of Rhode Island State Government is responsible to submit/include in their respective budget or submit a budget article to have the outstanding balance on their principle of the American Express Loan from ERSRI?

John J. Meehan

Marianne F. Monte

What fiscal years has the request be submitted?

Thomas A. Mullaney

Claire M. Newell

The purpose of the Access to Public Records Act is to provide the public with access to public documents maintained by governmental agencies. It does not require agencies to respond to questions unless those questions can be answered by providing responsive documents. Therefore, to fully comply with the APRA statute, and based on our understanding of your request, enclosed please find documents responsive to your request.

Louis M. Prata

Jean Rondeau

Frank J. Karpinski
Executive Director

If you contend you have been denied access to public records, pursuant to RIGL §38-2-8, you may appeal this decision to Frank J. Karpinski, Executive Director of the Employees' Retirement System of Rhode Island, 50 Service Avenue, 2nd Floor, Warwick, RI 02886. You may also file a complaint with the Department of the Attorney General, 150 South Main Street, Providence, RI 02903 or the Rhode Island Superior Court of the county where the records are maintained.

Additional information regarding the Access to Public Records Act may be found at <http://www.riag.ri.gov/civil/opengovernment>.

Sincerely,

Gayle C. Mambro-Martin, Esq.
Public Records Officer
